

Community Risk Reduction

York Fire Department firmly believes fire safety education is vital to fire prevention for the residents of the City of York.

York Fire Department works closely with schools, daycares, churches, and businesses to educate all ages about the importance of fire safety.

York Fire Department has staff certified to teach CPR/AED/First Aid. Contact us for more information on any upcoming classes.

If your business needs fire extinguisher training, we can help.

For more information on Smoke Alarms, click here.

information.

View Slideshow